Dear Sarah:

I am sure you have wondered what has happened to me this year--well just plain busy!

The auditors were here (I mean accreditors!) and they really took us to pieces--and we ended up, rather the Library did with a budget of $40,000 (increase of $20,000) and an assistant, for me. So I immediately purchased $10,000 worth of statutes (we now have 50 Statutes and 2 territories) and guess I will have around $5000 left for new treatises and texts.

The assistant will be a cataloguer and will come April 1, 1970!

If we just had a little more shelving space and work space I would be happy. We will have another storage room in the basement--we already have 4 places where are books are stored, so you see, what a mess we are in!

But anyway, that's the way it goes.

I like the luncheon idea fine for the Waxshington meeting--
July 1, 1970.

I am usually "keyed" up about the Annual meeting by now but I can't seem to get organized enough to think about it. Our vacation is March 7th, so hopefully I can do more for the S.E. then, if there is any thing to do - other than sending out Dues notices which will be in May.

I appreciated the notices being sent out for the Scholarships.

The check from Carmen and the note is something else. I have been sending her notices and notices. I notice I do not have her address correctly! Perhaps she has moved. Anyway, I will make corrections.

Please, if you have any notices for me to take care of, let me know. Have you heard when the Knoxville, Tenn. meeting will be?

Very truly yours,
